Adam focuses his practice on business and corporate law, serving as a valued partner to owners and key leadership of closely held businesses in a variety of commercial and real estate transactions. With experience across the full range of business owners' legal needs, Adam provides his clients with strategic advice to reduce risk and meet their goals throughout the life cycle of the business. Adam advises businesses on all aspects of corporate and commercial transactions including formation, mergers and acquisitions, financing, joint ventures, commercial agreements, real estate transactions, and business succession planning.

Adam earned his law degree from the Rutgers School of Law and is a graduate of Lehigh University where he earned a Bachelor of Science cum laude in Finance and a Bachelor of Arts cum laude in International Relations.

Outside of work, Adam enjoys spending time with his nephews and his golden retriever, Frank. Adam loves country music, college football and fishing.
